

Ed Gerety's Introduction

Our guest speaker today is a graduate from the University of New Hampshire where he received his Bachelor of Arts degree in Communications. At 22 years of age he established his own business dedicated to helping others develop as leaders and reach out and make a difference. Since that time he has shared his powerful message in all 50 states, Canada, and Europe. He is the author and co-author of five books on the topics of leadership and personal development. Please welcome, Ed Gerety.
